

Some Artists of Highland Park deceased.

Anthony Anderson - Died 1939

Art Critic

William Lees Judson 1842 -1928

Painter. Founder and Dean of the College of Fine Arts, University of Southern California. He was president of the Arroyo Guild of Craftsmen and established the Judson Studios, one of the outstanding stained glass studios of the West, which work is still carried on by the Judson family. The Studios are located at 209 South Avenue 66.

Ella Goodwin Lunt

Painter and Musician. Founder of the Highland Park Ebell Club. Studied in Paris and exhibited in Paris Salon.

Regina O'Kane

Studied with Arthur Wesley Dow and Frank Brangwyn. She taught art in the Los Angeles Normal School.

Dwight Rice

Musician. Was head of Music Department of Oberlin College.

Walter Fisher Skeele - 1865-1935

Musician - was Head of Music Department USC and organist of First Congregational Church, Los Angeles.